ST. NICHOLAS.

"The king of all publications issued for the young on either side of the Atlantic."—Southampton (England) Observer.

The third volume of this incomparable Magazine is now completed. With its eight hundred royal octavo pages, and its six hundred illustrations, its splendid serials, its shorter stories, poems, and sketches, etc., etc., in its beautiful binding of red and gold, it is the most splendid gift-book for boys and girls ever issued from the press. Price, $4; in full gilt, $5.

"St. Nicholas is full of the choicest things. The publication is, in all respects, the best of its kind. We have never yet seen a number that was not surprisingly good."—The Churchman, Hartford, Conn.

ST. NICHOLAS for 1877,
Which opens with November 1876, begins
A short and very entertaining serial from the French, "The Kingdom of the Greedy," a story adapted to the Thanksgiving Season. Another serial, of absorbing interest to boys, entitled
"HIS OWN MASTER," by J. T. Trowbridge, author of the "Jack Hazard Stories," begins in the Christmas Holiday number.

Besides serial stories, Christmas stories, lively sketches, poems and pictures for the holidays, and some astonishing illustrations of Oriental sports, with drawings by Siamese artists, the Christmas Holiday Number of St. Nicholas, superbly illustrated, contains a very interesting paper,
"THE BOYS OF MY BOYHOOD," by William Cullen Bryant;
"The Horse Hotel," a lively article by Charles A. Barnard, splendidly illustrated; "The Clock in the Sky," by Richard A. Proctor; "A Christmas Play for Homes or Sunday Schools," by Dr. Eggleston; "The Peterkins' Christmas Tree," by Lucretia P. Hale; "Poetry and Carols of Winter," by Lucy Larcom, with pictures.

Do Not Fail to Buy ST. NICHOLAS for the Christmas Holidays. PRICE 25 cents.

During the year there will be interesting papers for boys, by William Cullen Bryant, John G. Whittier, Thomas Hughes, William Howitt, Dr. Holland, George MacDonald, Sanford B. Hunt, Frank R. Stockton, and others.

There will be stories, sketches, and poems, of special interest to girls, by Harriet Prescott Spofford, Susan Coolidge, Sarah Winter Kellogg, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Louisa Alcott, Lucretia P. Hale, Celia Thaxter, Mary Mapes Dodge, and many others. There will be also with maps, showing "The Stars of Each Month," which will be likely to surpass in interest any series on popular science recently given to the public.

AMUSEMENT AND INSTRUCTION, with FUN AND FROLIC, and WIT AND WISDOM, will be mingled as heretofore, and ST. NICHOLAS will continue to delight the young and give pleasure to the old.

THE LONDON LITERARY WORLD says:
"There is no magazine for the young that can be said to equal this choice production of SCRIBNER'S Press. All the articles, whether in prose or rhyme, are throbbing with vitality. * * * The literature and artistic illustrations are both superb."

The London Daily News says: "We wish we could point out its equal in our own periodical literature."

GOOD NEWS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.
To meet the demand for a cheaper ST. NICHOLAS Gift Book, the price of vols. I and II has been reduced to $3 each. The three volumes, in an elegant library case, are sold for $10 (in full gilt, $15), so that all may give their children a complete set. These volumes contain more attractive material than fifty dollars' worth of the ordinary children's books.

Subscription price, $3 a year. The three bound volumes and a subscription for this year, only $12. Subscribe with the nearest newsdealer, or send money in check, or P. O. money order, or in registered letter, to

VEGETINE

Strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, invigorating the nervous system.

Vegetine

Is not a vile, nauseous compound which simply purges the bowels, but a safe, pleasant remedy, which is sure to purify the blood, and thereby restore the health.

Vegetine

Is now prescribed, in cases of Scrofula and other diseases of the blood, by many of the best physicians, owing to its great success in curing all diseases of this nature.

Vegetine

Does not deceive invalids into false hopes by purging and creating a fictitious appetite, but assists nature in clearing and purifying the whole system, leading the patient gradually to perfect health.

Vegetine

Was looked upon as an experiment for some time by some of our best physicians, but those most incredulous in regard to its merit are now its most ardent friends and supporters.

Vegetine

Instead of being a puffed up medicine, has worked its way up to its present astonishing success by actual merit in curing all diseases of the blood, of whatever nature.

Vegetine

Says a Boston physician, "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had failed, I visited the Laboratory and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots and herbs, each of which is highly effective, and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

Vegetine

Is acknowledged and recommended by physicians and apothecaries to be the best purifier and cleanser of the blood yet discovered, and thousands speak in its praise who have been restored to health.

PROOF.
WHAT IS NEEDED.
BOSTON, Feb 13, 1871.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:
Dear Sir—About one year since I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility. Vegetine was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefited by its use. I procured the article, and, after using several bottles, was restored to health and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for those complaints for which it is especially prepared, and would cheerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health.
Respectfully yours, U. L. PETTENGILL, Firm of S. M. Pettengill & Co., No. 10 State St., Boston.

I Have Found the Right Medicine.
BOSTON, Mass.
MR. H. R. STEVENS—
Dear Sir—My only object in giving you this testimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit until I commenced taking the Vegetine, and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man, and my skin is smooth, and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of Vegetine. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of the Vegetine's wonderful power of curing me of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

READER,

Have you risen from your bed after an all night's sleep to find yourself nearly suffocated with Catarrhal matter in your nose, head, and throat? Have you noticed what a depressing influence it exercises on the mind, blunting its faculties, besides enervating the body as well? How difficult to get rid of this foul matter all can testify who are afflicted with Catarrh. How difficult to protect the system against its further progress towards the lungs and bronchial tubes, all physicians can testify. It is a terrible disease and cries out for relief. To be freed from the danger of suffocation while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter defiles the breath and undermines the system; to know that the body does not, through its veins and arteries, carry the poison that is sure to destroy, is indeed a blessing. To purchase immunity from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure. They become hardened [illegible]. With such this long array of testimonials from our best citizens, physicians, and druggists, in favor of

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

Must convince them that it possesses great merit when the new and original method of its preparation when studied with the disease satisfies the mind of any reasonable person that its method of cure is the true one.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

Instantly relieves and permanently cures every form of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the ulcerative stage, together with all its sympathetic diseases.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

Relieves in a short time the very worst forms of Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Tightness across the Temples, Ringing noises in the Head, and Wakefulness.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

Cleanses the nasal passages in a single application with the admirable Inhaler, which accompanies each package free of charge, and is more serviceable than any other form of Inhaler.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

Removes by a single application the hard, encrusted matter from the nose, opens up the nasal passages, allows the sufferer to breathe freely and enjoy for the first time the pleasure of a full breath.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

Allays pain, inflammation, and soreness of the mucous membrane of the nasal passages. It is the most soothing, healing, and grateful preparation ever applied to these inflamed surfaces.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

Is also taken internally, where, by its action on the blood, in eliminating from the system the acid poison always present in Catarrh, it affects the whole constitution.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

This becomes a powerful purifying agent in overcoming the poisonous action of the rotten matter that has, during sleep, dropped into the throat and mingled with the contents of the stomach, to be absorbed into the system.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

Is a local and constitutional remedy. It strengthens the system by internal use, while it clears the head to throw off the disease, and soothes and heals the inflamed nasal surfaces by direct application.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

Is a great and reliable medicine, and when every other remedy is tried and found wanting, this, by its immediate beneficial effect, passes at once into favor, which it retains ever afterwards.

Each package contains Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for use in all cases. Price $1.00. For sale by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston.

NEW ENGLAND FAIR.

ORGANIZATION OF THE EXHIBITION.

[From the Portland Press, Sept. 4.]

The fourteenth annual exhibition of the New England Agricultural Society opens at Presumpscot Park at 10 o'clock to-day with appropriate ceremonies. Yesterday was nothing more than a day of preparation and was an exceedingly busy one both at the Park and at the hall. This Society was organized in the winter of 1863. Its chief object is the improvement of live stock throughout New England. This object has been nearly attained. At present only thoroughbreds and first cross stock are admitted to competition for premiums. The original design of the society was to make a circuit of exhibitions, holding the fair in each of the New England states once every six years, and that the rules and premium lists originally adopted should govern the series of exhibitions. In 1869, when the fair was held for the first time in Maine at Portland, a new feature was added. Prior to that period there had been no hall exhibition. The show had been restricted to horses, cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, agricultural implements and farm products; but in 1869, manufactured goods, and works of art were included in the exhibition, and this feature has since been retained.

The New England Society consists of a president, one vice president and eleven trustees, a secretary and treasurer. The trustees are appointed by the president. Their position is honorary and advisory only, the authority being vested in the president, secretary and treasurer. The president of the society is G. B. Loring of Salem, Mass.; the secretary, Daniel Needham of Boston; the treasurer, Geo. W. Riddle of Manchester, N. H. John Hall of North Berwick is vice president for Maine. The trustees for Maine are Charles J. Gilman, Brunswick; Rufus Prince, Turner; Enoch Knight, Portland; Moses H. Hussey, North Berwick; W. S. Tilton, Togus; Waldo T. Pierce, Bangor; Fred Atwood, Winterport; S. T. Holbrook, Oxford; N. R. Boutelle, Waterville; Seth Scamman, Scarboro'; S. H. Tewksbury, Portland.

AT THE GROUNDS.

At an early hour yesterday morning there was a general stir in the vicinity of Presumpscot Park. Exhibitors from this immediate vicinity were arriving with their exhibits and the officials were busy stirring around to assign the several positions. The forage master, Mr. Gibbs, appeared to be in the greatest demand, for all the stock was hungry and forage must be had. In every instance an order from Mr. Gibbs was required before it could be delivered.

The Eclipse windmill exhibited by L. A. Wheeler already attracts much attention. With this machine, which is driven by the wind, as the name indicates, the water is pumped from Lake Tewksbury into a pipe which connects with a row of hogsheads set on the bank about the lake, for the use of the stock. The principle consists of a wheel, side vane and flexible rudder, so arranged as to act automatically together. The side vane affords a doubly sure regulator, which being adjustable can be set so as to make the mill run fast or slow, and the automatic weight keeps a steady motion to the wheel. The wheel itself is a great improvement over the ordinary ones. It is capable of bearing a far greater strain than one composed of thin, narrow slats, and the straight heavy girts are far more durable than those round bent ones. So satisfied are the proprietors that each mill shipped is in perfect order and will do all that it claims that they guarantee the whole mill, and any casting breaking from defect in material or workmanship will be replaced free of charge without delay. The machine is used for various purposes where power is needed on the farm, and promises to come into general use at no distant day. When the wind is fresh it pumps up a supply in case the wind should slacken. The operation is perfectly noiseless, no matter how hard the wind blows, and it is said that it will weather a hurricane.

Five professional pickpockets and thieves were discovered on the grounds yesterday, but they did not attempt their games and the officers who were shadowing them did not molest them. Two of the crowd have been getting rich out of the changing money trick, and they will doubtless attempt it this week. They are very seedy looking chaps, but are said to be sharp. They both wear dilapidated looking silk hats and dark clothes. They are about five feet eight inches in height. One of them has a faint attempt at a brown moustache, while the other wears light side whiskers. They invariably go together and if once seen will never be forgotten.

At 1 o'clock the gates were thrown open and the crowd began to gather. The appearance of the weather at about noon was very discouraging, but the clouds which were supposed to contain rain proved to contain nothing but wind and the anxiety soon disappeared, while the sun appeared in all its effulgence. Chandler's Band arrived at about 1.30 and were stationed in the band stand near the judges, where they discoursed fine music throughout the afternoon. The full band of twenty-five pieces were in attendance and their music was the subject of much favorable comment.

At 2 o'clock President Loring of the New England Society arrived in a barouche and accompanied by Superintendent Fenderson, rode over the grounds. He was greatly pleased with the arrangement of all the several departments.

RUNNING RACE.

The foot race of Norman Taylor, who was to run five miles in 20 minutes, while a horse was to trot eight miles in the same time, was the amusement of the afternoon. Promptly at 3.30 o'clock Mr. Taylor appeared on the track. He was dressed in a white shirt, linen pants, his head was uncovered and his feet bare. In his hand he carried a small riding whip. Mr. Geo. Roke's horse Buckskin was the horse selected to trot against Mr. Taylor. At the word go Taylor started off at an easy pace, which he kept up during four miles. At the commencement of the fifth mile he spurted and kept quickening his pace up to the end of the race.

A strong northwesterly wind was blowing at the time which prevented him from making better time and winning the race. Below is the score for one-half mile and mile:

	m. s.	m. s.
1st half mile,		2 15
1st mile,	5 36½
2d half mile,		2 57
2d mile,	5 55
3d half mile,		3 01
3d mile,	6 01½
4th half mile,		3 01
4th mile,	6 03
5th half mile,		3 02
5th mile,	5 58½

Total—29 minutes and 37 seconds.

The horse's total was 29 minutes and 12 seconds, the horse beating Mr. Taylor, and time beating both.

which have already arrived and are constantly arriving, naturally attract much attention from all classes. As usual, the Knox stock predominates, although the Fearnaughts are by no means scarce. Among the Knox stock we noticed the stallion Coupon, who took the first premium at the State Fair of last year. This horse is owned by S. H. Milliken of Saco, and is ten years old. He is a beautiful brown color, and very stylish. His speed has not been tested to any great extent, as he has been in the stud for several years. He has, however, trotted in two races but has no record. He is entered in the three minute and 2.35 classes, when it is expected he will show good speed, as he is in excellent condition.

The mare Eastern Queen, owned by A. W. Hawes, of Saco, is well worth looking at. She was sired by Gilbreth Knox, and has a colt at her side by Knox Chief, he by Palmer Knox. The mare is now with foal by Bayard Knox. She has trotted seven races in her life and never lost but one heat, and has a record of 2.40. Last year she trotted four races and won each of them. The mare and her foal are to be found at stall No. 14, and a fine picture of the animal may be seen at City Hall. Mr. Hawes also exhibits the young and promising stallion Bayard Knox, now less than three years old. He was sired by Palmer Knox, and shows a fine gait on the track. He can go to the quarter, every day in 40 seconds. He is a blood bay color with black points, stands 15 hands high and weighs 950 pounds. Mr. Hawes proposes to speed him slightly during the fair.

Whalebone Knox, the property of Benjamin F. Fairbanks of Winthrop, is now on the ground, and is, as usual, surrounded by a host of his stock. He is now ten years old, but never trotted a race for money in his life, although he is said to be able to trot in 2.30 easily. He is thought by many to be the best representative of the old General now owned in Maine. He has recently become almost blind.

McKenney's Knox, a stallion owned by Mr. McKenney of Auburn, is three years old and is a beautiful chestnut color. He took a prize last year at the State Fair. He has been kept as a stock horse this season, but is now preparing for the turf. He has beaten three pilots several times, and promises much better things. There are many other horses of the same stock which will receive attention at a future time.

The stallion Dana Fearnaught is in excellent order for exhibition this season. Notwithstanding the fact that he has been in the stud all summer, he never was looking so well. He stands 16 hands high, weighs 1050 pounds, and is as gentle as a kitten. He shows a fine gait on the road, but Mr. E. Dana, Jr., of this city, who owns him does not believe in pushing colts too young, and so prefers to let him get developed before he trots him. He is a horse of great promise.

Mr. Daniel Tenney, of Newbury, Mass., shows a very pretty matched pair of Fearnaught stallions, which he has named Hayes and Wheeler. They are but two years old, and just arrived from Newbury, 80 miles distant, having been driven the entire distance. Mr. Tenney also shows a fine driving horse seven years old and very stylish.

T. C. Dunlock of West Minot, exhibits a matched pair of young and fine looking horses.

The full blooded Percheron Norman stallion Centennial, exhibited last year, attracts much attention. This horse, it will be remembered, was imported from France a year ago by Mr. Dunham, the celebrated horse man, and was at once purchased by Mr. E. Whittemore of West Paris, the present owner. He is five years old and weighs 1600 pounds, and is kept for breeding purposes solely. Mr. Horace Starbird of Paris, takes care of him.

THE CATTLE

had not near all arrived yesterday and so no notice of any of them is given this morning. Mr. Seward Dill, of Phillips, arrived, last evening, on the Maine Central train with his fine herd. There were also several others whose names were not learned. The stock will all be in place ready to be examined this morning. Work was continued on the cattle stalls yesterday and they are now about completed.

The poultry, sheep and swine will also receive attention at another time.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

The massive Yale tent is rapidly being filled with agricultural and mechanical instruments. In making a hasty tour through the tent you first come to the stand of Kendall & Whitney. They have on exhibition a large assortment of the most improved articles, the most noticeable of which are Whitman's patent horse-power and separator, Nishwitz's patent pulverizer, Colter harrows, also a large collection of iron and steel plows, Buckeye mowers and all kinds of rakes, churns, cider presses, etc. Directly opposite is the stand of Isaiah Frye & Son, where they have on hand a large assortment of their plows. The next stand is occupied by the Eagle Mowing and Reaping Machine Co., Albany, N. Y. They exhibit some of their light, easy running reapers, designed especially for New England trade. Mr. Deguio exhibits a handsomely modeled row boat. The Vermont Farm Machine Company have a good assortment of farm and dairy wares. Cooley's portable creamery is deserving of notice from all dairymen. Clay Whitely of Springfield, Ohio, exhibits his Champion and new Champion mowers. Messrs. E. D. & O. B. Reynolds occupy a large space for exhibiting their improved plows, cultivators, horse hoes and harrows. Mr. R. will be in attendance to explain and show the workings of their instruments. Chadbourn & Caldwell Manufacturing Co. exhibit through their agent, Mr. Sawyer of this city, some of their Excelsior hand and horse lawn mowers. These mowers received the highest award at the Centennial. Messrs. Everett & Small of Boston, have among their exhibits Bradley's celebrated reversible harrow, Mathews' hand cultivator, Collins' hay tedder. This last named machine is very simple in construction, running by one set of cogs. O. J. Pressy has a corn stalk slitter for converting the stalks into fine feed. In this state the stalks are relished much better by the cattle. Mr. A. L. Dennison of this city, has one of the largest exhibits. Dennison's pulverizer, invented by Mr. Dennison, is one of the most important articles. This machine does its work in a neat and effectual manner. Cameron's patent adjustable marker is the best machine for the purpose we ever saw. By means of movable teeth the rows can be made from one to four feet apart, and one to four inches in depth. It is worthy the attention of all agriculturists. They have also Taylor's horse-rake, Cameron's plows. All of their machines are painted artistically and arranged neatly. Mr. Scandon of this city, exhibits his patent portable forges and fan blowers. The advantage of these blowers over the bellows is, that a steady blast is always obtained, and you can get double the power at half the cost. The attention of mechanics is called to these articles. Mr. S. has some 25 different styles on hand.

Mr. Alvin Soule of Yarmouth, exhibits his patent four-wheeled dump cart. This wagon differs from ordinary wagons by having a cranked hind axle, the parts next to the gudgeons extending forward horizontally, thus removing the main part of the axle to the middle of the body, giving it freedom to tip and discharge its load.

The most extensive exhibit is made by the Ames Plow Company, Boston. They have a large assortment of their patent cast iron and steel land side and swivel plows, harrows, cultivators, seed sowers, horse powers, threshing and grain mills, vegetable and hay cutters, horse and hand mills, corn shellers, trucks, barrows, mills, churns, &c. Gentlemanly attendants will be on hand to answer all questions. M. A. A. Mitchell exhibits Ladow's harrow. It differs from the ordinary harrow by having concave wheels, which cut and turn the soil.

Washburn & Moen exhibit their patent steel Barb fencing. This fencing is made of twisted galvanized wire, to which is attached steel barbs. It combines strength, durability and cheapness.

Chase Turbine Manufacturing Company of Orange, Mass., exhibit their patent turbine water wheels and circular saw mills.

Mr. Hamlin of Deering, exhibits his patent centre draft mower. The advantage of this mower is that whatever power is needed from the draft to drive the gear and knife is located in one main driving wheel, so that it gives no concussion or side motion to the machine.

The Belcher & Taylor Agricultural Tool Company exhibit Prout's hoeing machine. This is an ingenious invention. It is so arranged that it strides the row, carrying fresh soil to the plant and rolls the dry soil away, leaving the ground behind ridged or level as the operator may desire.

Mr. Fred Atwood has pitched a large tent, in which he intends to exhibit a large assortment of agricultural implements, which will be noticed in the future.

A [illegible] chicken train has been started on the Pennsylvania Railroad. They have a Passenger Cochin in the rear and a locomotive to pullet.

Manners are the roots, laws only the trunk and branches. Manners are the archetypes of laws. Manners are laws in their infancy. Laws are manners, full grown—manners are children, which when they grow up, become laws.—Horace Mann.

"Why don't you wear a bustle, ma," asked a little boy. "A what?" "A bustle." "What is that my dear? I never heard of such a thing." "Why, yes, you have, ma. I asked Aunt Mary what made her dress stick out so and she said, 'Hush, my dear.'"

Miss Alta Sweet, the Chicago pension agent is going to get married. That's the right sort of Civil Service Reform.

Professor W. M. At the time of Dr. Barbour's first call to Yale we [illegible] expression of the earnest feelings of all our people in deprecation of his taking [illegible] the [illegible] deprivation of the presence [illegible] so [illegible] our people and whose daily walk among [illegible] its manner blessed traces of wise counsel, kindliness and good cheer. And [illegible] we were glad that we [illegible] to keep him for another year, [illegible] the [illegible] Professor Barbour has [illegible] recognized [illegible] intellectual power, and has used this with frankness [illegible] and [illegible] to [illegible] a strong hold upon the hearts of all who knew him. Yale will find [illegible] gratulated [illegible] to [illegible] strength [illegible] new place [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] citizenship and neighborhood is shared with our citizens by [illegible] family, who are removing from us after a long residence, and in tendering them on behalf of our people the most heartfelt wishes for their future prosperity and happiness, we deem it fitting to [illegible] the following closing paragraphs from the Farewell Sermon delivered by Prof. Barbour at the First Parish church on Sunday last.

And now dear Church of Christ the [illegible] word I must come. The Lord [illegible] to pronounce [illegible] man, and you to bear [illegible] you have borne [illegible] greater sorrow.

FARE—YOU—WELL! This word exactly gives my parting thought. Well may you fare from those who follow me, who will preach to you of Christ. Well may you fare on heavenly consolations, on inspiring hopes, on memories and anticipations of things unseen and eternal.

And in this last and only public opportunity I have to say farewell, this church will allow me to include in the word, all Zion's friends and mine, for in every church are those whom I have learned to love as brethren and friends of Christ, to include the city also, which a year ago [illegible] one man, to testify to me its good will and esteem. The volume of the book which holds their names will often be read while I live, and, dying, it will become the heritage of my sons.

Only one thing I ask as a response to this farewell. It is that my name may be entered on the list of this city's, and its churches, friends and that it may remain there until I forfeit it, or recall it. And, it will be a dark day in my history when I forfeit your friendship, and as sad a day in yours, when I ask you to blot my name from your memory and your heart.

It must have been an edifying spectacle to see the exclusive and austere Joseph H. Williams mounted on a stand in his grounds last Tuesday evening delivering a labored technical argument in defence of the Electoral Commission and in support of the legality of President Hayes' title, to an audience composed of eighty Democratic torch-lighters, recruited in Portland and Brunswick for a ride and a free lunch on the Williams estate. It is safe to say that so many Democrats never got so near Mr. Williams before and it is equally evident that his scruples were overcome by Pillsbury's "masterly strategy" which, required a demonstration of "fellowship with the rank and file." How Mr. Williams must have sighed with relief when he got rid of those hungry "Zouaves."

DEATH OF LOUIS ADOLPHE THIERS.

The veteran politician, journalist, historian, orator and ex-President, who at fourscore was at once the sage and the leader of the Republican party in France is dead. He had reached an age when the golden cord might easily snap. This cease[illegible] activity, this tireless energy, were the coloring characteristics of his whole life. As a young man at the newspaper desk, as a historian in his library, as the [illegible] on the floor of the Assembly, as the head of the Republic in perhaps the most trying period in the history of France, as the man of letters in a retirement forced upon him by the hostile voice of an ungrateful and conspiring faction, is again the leader of the French Republicans—he was always the hardest of hard workers. It was this constant labor that made him [illegible] [illegible] Americans [illegible] of the most [illegible] of Frenchmen. When the whole nation [illegible] down under the Prussian [illegible], he seemed alone capable of meeting and [illegible] with Bismarck, and Bismarck [illegible] that [illegible] civilization [illegible]

Louis Adolphe Thiers, ex-President of the French Republic, was born of humble parents in Marseilles April 16th, 1797. He was sent to the Lyceum of his native city and the law school of Aix, where he [illegible] the bar from 1818 to 1821. He [illegible] his friend Mignet to Paris [illegible] Constitutionnel [illegible] of the French Revolution [illegible] 1823-1827. On the accession of Prince Polignac to the Ministry August 8th, 1829, M. Thiers [illegible] with the moderate [illegible] the National [illegible] established in company with his friends Mignet and Armand Carrel a new political journal [illegible] the Revolution of 1830. On the appearance of the [illegible] of July 25th the editors of the National were among the [illegible] who signed the protest of the Paris journalists, and Thiers was [illegible] the [illegible] of the Duke of Orleans [illegible] August 1st [illegible] the throne August 9th [illegible] was appointed Assistant Secretary to the Department of Finance [illegible] under Baron Louis [illegible] City of Aix to the Chamber of Deputies, where he was first laughed at [illegible] his [illegible] style of oratory [illegible] short stature and [illegible] the most intricate questions [illegible]. On the fall of Lafitte March 13th, 1831 M. Thiers [illegible] the [illegible] of his patrons who had gone over to the Opposition [illegible] support of Casimir Perier and advocated the peace policy [illegible] several [illegible] unpalatable to the people. He advocated severe measures with the Republicans and Legitimists [illegible] of June [illegible] 1832 [illegible] the Duke [illegible] he [illegible] Minister of the Interior Oct. 11th [illegible] arrest of the Duchess de Berri [illegible] In [illegible] Antwerp [illegible] transferred to the Ministry of Commerce and Public Works [illegible] Chamber of Deputies and gave a [illegible] impulse to internal improvement [illegible] the statue of Napoleon [illegible] Column [illegible] Arc de Triomphe, the Madeleine [illegible] other public works and [illegible] railroads and canals.

[illegible] the Ministry of the Interior in 1834 he [illegible] put [illegible] insurrectionary movements of April 12 and 13. He resigned in November [illegible] combinations [illegible] his post with Guizot [illegible] Duke de Broglie. He [illegible] narrow escape from the murderous attempt of Fieschi, July 28, 1835, [illegible] advocated the so-called laws of September, [illegible] the freedom of the press, and in February, 1836, when the whole Cabinet resigned Thiers rose to the premiership, holding at the same time the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. At the end of seven months, however [illegible] unable to persuade the King to adopt a more [illegible] policy at home and to show more energy in his transactions abroad, Mr. Thiers retired, and was succeeded by M. Molé. As one of the leaders of the opposition [illegible] he adhered in 1838 to the coalition which finally overthrew that Ministry, and was reinstated in his former position March 1, 1840. This was one of the most trying periods of his ministerial career. His home policy was impeded by the undecided character of the Chamber of Deputies, and his foreign policy was outwitted by the diplomats [illegible] of Russia, England and Austria who had agreed to settle the Eastern Question without consulting France. Enraged at this consummation, and convinced that war only could again raise his country to its proper standing, he began fearlessly to prepare for such an emergency, but at the last could not prevail upon the King to resort to such a desperate course. He then after six months of [illegible] exertion and bitter disappointment, resigned his powerless premiership, October 29, being succeeded by M. Guizot, and was not again recalled to the control of public affairs until he became President of the Republic. He figured as one of the opposition leaders, bitterly censuring Guizot's policy in 1844 denouncing the growing influence of the order of Jesuits in 1845, and insisting (in March, 1846) upon the necessity of excluding public functionaries from the Chamber of Deputies. His powers never shone more brilliantly than during the latter part of Louis Philippe's reign. His vehement speeches against M. Guizot's policy were extensively read, while his articles in the Constitutionnel, of which he was part owner, spread far and wide the so-called reformist agitation.

Prior to the revolution of 1848, Thiers made withering attacks upon Louis Philippe's pusillanimity in foreign affairs, and favored political reforms, but not a Republic. When, however, the King had fled, and the Republic was established (Feb. 24,) he accepted it as a protection against anarchy, and in June was elected to the Constituent Assembly. When Cavaignac asked for extraordinary powers against the Socialists he was the first to concede them, but subsequently he supported Louis Napoleon for President, and fought a duel with Bixio for repeating a rumor that he had previously disparaged that candidate. Elected to the Legislative Assembly, he was one of the most active leaders of the reactionary majority. In January, 1851, however, after the removal of Changarnier, he raised his warning voice against a new Napoleonic Empire. In November he offered the [illegible] to adopt Baze's resolution for its military protection and vainly admonished the Radicals that the rejection of this measure threatened the safety of the Legislature. He was arrested on the coup d'etat of December 2, imprisoned till January 9, and banished till Aug. 7, 1852. He kept aloof from politics until the progress of liberal opinions encouraged him, in 1863, to solicit the suffrages of Paris voters who returned him May 31, despite official opposition. In 1865, he referred in his great speech on the budget to the extravagant expenditures for the Italian war, the Mexican expedition and Haussmann's stupendous enterprises. In 1866 and 1867 he exposed the fatal blunders of Napoleon III in permitting the aggrandizement of Prussia and the unification of Italy to the detriment of the grandeur of France.

In 1870 the veteran statesman opposed the declaration of war against Prussia, maintaining that the Government was [illegible] to certain defeat. During the war he [illegible] the vigorous defence of Paris, and visited foreign [illegible] to secure their [illegible] in favor of an armistice. At the conclusion of peace in 1871 he was elected to the National Assembly. On February 17 he was chosen Chief of the Executive, and in August was elected President for three years. He held office until May 24, 1873, when [illegible] in his effort to make the Republic permanent [illegible] and was succeeded by MacMahon. In February, 1876 he was elected to the Assembly for Paris but did not take an active part in its proceedings. During the present electoral campaign M. Thiers acted in concert with the Republican leaders, and enjoyed great popularity, and [illegible]

OPEN [illegible]

The [illegible] has come out in open [illegible] the Democratic candidate for Governor and [illegible] the following [illegible] in large type, double-leaded at the head of its editorial column.

[illegible] Democrat think [illegible] Mr. Williams' name is placed at the head of the column of Convention nominations, that we support him for Governor, or shall vote for him at the polls. We keep his name there as a memorial of the folly of a Convention [illegible] and deceived by the [illegible] of men who have for years sought to disorganize and disband the Democratic party of Maine. Vote for John C. Talbot, or cut Williams' name from the ticket.

[illegible] thousand Democrats feel that they cannot vote for Williams, [illegible]

Many will simply vote the County and Representative ticket, cutting off the name of Governor. The determination not to vote for Williams in some localities is well nigh universal.

It also publishes letters from Portland and [illegible] confirming the prevalent hostility to the candidate for Governor.

The Greenback humbug does not thrive much here. Since the [illegible] of [illegible] at City Hall two attempts have been made to get up meetings, but have failed to be [illegible], and a proposed Greenback County Convention [illegible] way. With gold down to 104 the Greenback [illegible] find [illegible] and people [illegible]

The Boston [illegible] does not attempt to conceal its regret that the Democratic prospects are so poor in Maine [illegible] the [illegible] looks very near first class [illegible]

Railroad Scheme Defeated

AUGUSTA, Sept. 5. The project of loaning the credit of the city for $160,000 towards the building of a narrow gauge railroad from Augusta to West Waterville was defeated to-day at the polls by a vote of 409 to 658. This does not indicate the sentiment of the citizens, as one-half of the voters failed to appear at the polls. The Maine Central Railroad Company, in all its powerful and influential ramifications, worked with energy and persistency against the measure, as it was destined to be the starting point of a competing line of railroads on the narrow gauge system.

The following emanates from high financial authority: Constant illusion is made to the policy in France in regard to resumption as being different from that adopted here, when the truth is that country has been acting on the very policy that the United States is pursuing; but France is reducing its circulation more rapidly than the United States. The Bank of France has withdrawn its circulation during the last four months to the amount of twelve million pounds sterling and has accumulated coin in about the same ratio and is now practically at specie payments. She would no doubt promptly resume now but for the unsettled condition of the silver question.

PENNSYLVANIA.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

THE SOUTHERN POLICY DODGED.

A Vague Indorsement of Motives.

REMONETIZATION IS DEMANDED.

Sound Sense on Labor Question,

The State Convention—Nominations, Platform, Etc.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 5. The Republican State Convention met at noon, A. M. Brown, of Allegheny, was chosen temporary chairman, committees were appointed and the Convention adjourned to 2 o'clock.

Reassembling—Permanent Organization—Nominations.

Upon reassembling Wm. H. Armstrong was chosen permanent chairman. The nominations were then ordered. J. P. Sterrett was nominated by acclamation for Judge, for Auditor, Gen. Howard J. Reeder and J. A. M. Passmore were placed in nomination.

The Platform Non-committal on the Policy with a Vague Certificate of Character.

The Committee on Resolutions then reported the following, which was adopted.

Resolved, First, while we recognize and respect the difference of opinion existing among us as to the course pursued by President Hayes towards the South, we are heartily in accord in honoring the patriotic motives which have guided him and in hoping the results of this policy will be peace, good will and the complete recognition of the equal rights of all men in every section of the country and to the efforts of his Administration to carry into effect the principles of the platform upon which he was elected, we pledge our hearty and cordial support.

The next resolution arraigns the Democratic party for its abuse of the Electoral Commission.

The 3d resolution calls upon the members of the State and National Legislatures to assist in the return of prosperity to the country by adopting such measures as tend to that end.

The fourth and fifth resolutions oppose any grant of more than 160 acres of land to any one person, and also oppose the reissue of patents by act of Congress.

Remonetization of Silver.

The sixth declares that the long and successful existence, under the laws of Congress, of a double coin standard warrants us in demanding an early repeal of the legislation which demonetized silver, and established almost an exclusive gold standard, and we therefore favor a return to the free use and unrestricted coinage of the dollar of 1798 and its restoration to the position it held as a legal tender during the eighty years of our national existence, thus preserving the equality of the commercial value of the silver dollar with the gold dollar, keeping both in circulation.

The seventh resolution endorses the administration of Gov. Hartranft.

Sensible Treatment of the Labor Question.

We are in favor of law and against lawlessness and anarchy with all their attendant horrors and crimes. Equal rights in making laws impose equal duties in obeying them when made, and we tender our hearty thanks to Governor Hartranft and the officers and soldiers at his command for prompt, and we hope, effectual suppression of the lawless disturbance which recently occurred in this State.

Ninth—We hold in equal respect the rights of capital to control its investments, and of labor to determine the value of its services; that we deprecate any assertion by violence of the rights of either, and we assert it as the duty of all citizens to hold their respective rights within the just limitations of the law and that any attempt to coerce others by unlawful means should be promptly repressed by such lawful authorities as the exigency demands.

The remaining resolutions, except the 11th which favors a protective tariff, relate entirely to state affairs.

The nomination of W. B. Hart for State Treasurer was made by acclamation.

Adjourned sine die.

FOREIGN NEWS.

THE EASTERN WAR.

The Attack on Osman Pasha—The Russian Advance Irresistible.

LONDON, Sept. 5. The Times' Vienna correspondent says the impression still exists in Belgrade that despite the military preparations the Servians do not intend to enter the field just now, but are waiting the fortune of war to declare itself. Persons here who kept a record of the reinforcements that have gone to Shumla, estimate that Mehemet Ali must have nearly 160,000 men. Taking away 60,000 for garrisons to guard the line towards Dobrudscha there would still remain 100,000 for field operations. A cable despatch records the advance of the Russians preceding the capture of Lovatz, and says the long-expected attack on Osman Pasha has at last commenced according to a prearranged plan by which the assault was to be simultaneous along the whole Russian line from the mouth of the Vide almost to the foot of the Balkans, south of Lovatz. The attack as made was irresistible, the Grand Duke fully intending that the advance once begun should not suffer any check. He has for the past month pursued the ceaseless and relentless purpose of crushing Osman Pasha, retrieving the disaster of July 31st.

Monday everything was ready and the advance began at six with fighting at ten. The Turks fought obstinately, but the Russian advance was irresistible. Already all communication between Lovatz and Plevna has been severed, and when the former position is carried, as it must be to-day, the left centre will flank the Turkish position by moving into the south of Plevna. The battle continues.

Turkish Successes.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 5. A despatch announces that Ahmed Pasha yesterday repulsed the Russian attack at Kadikoi near Rustchuk. The Russians are stated to have lost 1000 men. According to intelligence from Suleiman Pasha's army, the Turks have obtained still further command of the Gabrova road to Shipka Pass. Cannonading is going on in the Pass.

Russian Reinforcements.

LONDON, Sept. 5. A correspondent at Shipka Pass says the Russians made a fine road up the Pass, which would never have been done had they not intended to use it for the passage of the army into Roumelia, when the proper moment arrives. New bridges and other improvements in the road are still being made.

A Severe Attack.

MANCHESTER, Sept. 5. A Poredin special Monday via Bucharest Tuesday evening, says: The attack on Osman Pasha today was very severe. We shall enter Plevna probably to-morrow. The Grand Duke Nicholas is here.

Minister Washburne's Departure

Minister Noyes will present credentials and Washburne his letter of recall to MacMahon this afternoon. Washburne's engagements and early departure have obliged him to decline a banquet tendered him by Americans in Paris and also honors intended to be shown him by his French friends.

Minister Noyes' Remarks.

PARIS, Sept. 5. After presenting his credentials to President MacMahon this afternoon, Minister Noyes said: "I have also great pleasure in bringing with me the expression of the wishes of the President of the United States for the well being of your Excellency and the happiness of your family, as well as the peace and prosperity of the French people. My compatriots remember with gratitude the opportune and effective assistance rendered by France to our ancestors when fighting for National Independence. I shall not be able to better interpret the desire and feelings of the President and American people than by endeavoring, as I shall have the pleasure in doing, to cultivate, strengthen and perpetuate the warmest sympathies and friendly relations between the two countries.

MacMahon's Reply.

President MacMahon in reply, said: I thank you for the sentiments you have expressed, in the name of the President of the United States. I am sensible of the recollections you call up and you may rest assured you will always find me ready to second you in maintaining and strengthening the old friendship which unites France with your country.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, FOR THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, AND COLDS.

The great virtue of this medicine is that it ripens the matter and throws it out of the system, purifies the blood, and thus effects a cure.

SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC, FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, &C.

The Tonic produces a healthy action of the stomach, creating an appetite, forming chyle, and curing the most obstinate cases of Indigestion.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, FOR THE CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT, &C.

These pills are alterative, and produce a healthy action of the liver without the least danger, as they are free from calomel, and yet more efficacious in restoring a healthy action of the liver.

These remedies are a certain cure for Consumption, as the pulmonic Syrup ripens the matter and purifies the blood. The Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, create a healthy bile, and remove all diseases of the liver, often a cause of Consumption. The Sea Weed Tonic gives tone and strength to the stomach, makes a good digestion, and enables the organs to form good blood; and thus creates a healthy circulation of healthy blood. The combined action of these medicines, as thus explained, will cure every case of Consumption, if taken in time, and the use of the medicines persevered in.

TRUE ECONOMY is not in buying the lowest price articles. The best is cheapest. So with the fine cultivated and plantation grown spices imported by Messrs. Pinckney, Jackson & Co., of London and New York. I have just received a shipment of these goods and would specially invite the attention of all consumers to them. These spices are not only absolutely pure, but are without a doubt the finest ever imported into this country. I confidently recommend them as being really of unusual merit.

HARRISON'S

PERISTALTIC

A POSITIVE CURE FOR

Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Piles,

Oppression after Eating, Headache, Dizziness,

For Forty years these Lozenges have retained the confidence of the Medical Profession and the public generally, in spite of all competitors or imitators. They are the most effectual remedy for HABITUAL COSTIVENESS and its results, viz: Piles, Indigestion, Headache, Dizziness, Languor, Oppression of Food, Heartburn, Flatulence, Bad Taste in the mouth, Torpid Liver, &c., &c.

Females who cannot endure strong purgatives find these Lozenges admirably suited to their constitutions [illegible]. They are also just the thing for children suffering with Worms, being a sure cure, and as agreeable to take as the most pleasant confectionery. Travelers find the Lozenges just what they need, as they are so compact and in form that they may be carried in the vest pocket, and as an Aperient or Laxative they are unequaled.

Testimony of a Boston Merchant.

BOSTON, May 10, 1852.

This certifies that I have used Dr. Harrison's PERISTALTIC LOZENGES, and after suffering a long time with the Piles experienced an entire cure, and recommend their use to all afflicted in the same way, without reserve, or especially if attended with any constipation.

E. B. FORBES

LYNDONVILLE, Vt., March 28th, 1877.

Messrs. E. S. HARRISON & Co. Gents.—The business of the Ticket Office having increased very much, I am obliged to confine myself very closely to office work, and have in consequence been much troubled with constipation. I find in your Lozenges just what I need, not a strong purgative, but an efficient help to nature.

The undersigned, administrator with will annexed of the estate of Michael Donnelly, late of Bangor in said County, deceased, respectfully represents that the goods and chattels, rights and credits of said deceased are not sufficient to pay his just debts and charges of administration, by the sum of one hundred and twenty-five dollars, or more.

Wherefore your petitioner prays your Honor to grant him a license to sell, at public or private sale, and convey all of the late homestead of said deceased, situate on "Church Lane," so called, in said Bangor, as the residue would be greatly depreciated by a sale of any portion thereof, of the real estate of the deceased, (including the reversion of the widow's dower therein, if any) to satisfy said debts, expenses of sale, and charges of administration.

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes [illegible] and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 8 to 8½ P. M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window, when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to procure stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $27 50 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.

Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.
